

The background of the entire image is a dark, atmospheric illustration. It features several zombie-like figures in a dark, possibly urban or industrial setting. One prominent figure in the upper right has glowing white eyes and is reaching out with its hand. Another figure is visible in the upper left, and a third is partially seen in the lower right. The overall color palette is dark, with shades of blue, purple, and black, accented with bright yellow and white for the text and some highlights on the figures.
